This product had been shipped in interstate commerce and remained unsold and in the original package. At the time of examination it was found to be insect-infested.

On May 25, 1939, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 57 cases of raisins at Wilmington, N. C.; alleging that the article had been shipped on or about August 26, 1938, by the California Packing Corporation from San Francisco, Calif.; and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "All Gold Brand [or "Dessert Brand"] Sun Dried Natural Seedless Raisins."

Adulteration was alleged in that the article consisted in whole or in part of a filthy vegetable substance.

On July 10, 1939, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered destroyed.

30822. Adulteration and misbranding of vanilla extract. U. S. v. 420 Bottles of Filigree Pure Extract Vanilla. Default decree entered. Product ordered delivered to a charitable institution. (F. & D. No. 44638. Sample No. 44788-D.)

This product was represented to be pure vanilla extract. Examination showed that it was a hydroalcoholic solution of artificial vanilla flavor containing little or no true vanilla extract.

On January 5, 1939, the United States attorney for the District of New Jersey, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 420 bottles of vanilla extract at Jersey City, N. J.; alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about November 29, 1938, by Certified Extracts, Inc., from New York, N. Y.; and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: (Bottle) "Pure Extract Vanilla Filigree Quality Foods, Inc., Distributors Newark, N. J."

It was alleged to be adulterated in that a hydroalcoholic solution of artificial vanilla flavor that contained little or no true vanilla extract had been substituted for pure extract of vanilla, which it purported to be. It was alleged to be adulterated further in that it was mixed in a manner whereby inferiority was concealed.

The article was alleged to be misbranded in that the statements, (carton) "Pure Extract Vanilla * * * This extract is carefully prepared from the
